

Pappas telecasting is abusing the public interest by donating airtime only to the candidate of their choosing. Using the public airwaves in such a partisan and private manner should not be allowed. Make Pappas give equal time, either purchased or free but equally so, to each candidate or none at all.